

NIAGARA FALLS PARK.

PREPARING FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE RESERVATION.

Public Sentiment Strongly in Favor of the Grand Project, and Many Weighty Names are Found Attached to Numerous Petitions.

NIAGARA FALLS, March 21.—The Niagara Falls association, of which Howard Potter is president, was organized "to promote legislative and other measures for the restoration and improvement of the natural scenery at Niagara Falls." It has a large membership, including many of the most prominent and influential persons in the state. Its work for several months has been devoted especially to spreading information concerning the character of and necessity for the legislation desired at the present session of the legislature to save Niagara. The bill now before both the senate and the assembly provides for the appropriation of $1,423,420.50 to pay the awards already made for the lands to be taken for the proposed Niagara Falls reservation. These awards were made by Luther B. Marsh, of New York, Nathan Hale, of Albany, and Pascal P. Pratt, of Buffalo, acting as appraisers under authority of the supreme court. The act under which the commissioners of the Niagara Falls reservation were appointed, by Gov. Cleveland two years ago provided that the proceedings already had should be void unless the necessary appropriation to pay the award should be passed on or before April 30, 1885. The commissioners selected were William Dordner, president, M. B. Anderson of Rochester university, J. Hampden Robb, Sherman S. Rogers and Andrew H. Green. They, as well as Leffitt Williams, their secretary, have served without compensation.

The Niagara Falls association has sent letters to many persons in all parts of the state, asking them to signify to their representatives in the legislature their approval of the Niagara appropriation bill. More than a thousand letters have been received in response from persons of influence and prominence, who write that they have complied with the request and will do what they can to further the passage of the bill. Not more than fifteen communications have come to the association from those who for any reason oppose the appropriation.

In addition to the letters, petitions have been circulated by the same persons calling upon the legislature to pass the appropriation bill. In addition to the letters, petitions have been received by the association in great number. Some have come from the people of other states; among them are petitions signed by the members of the faculties of the university of California and Rutgers college. Whenever a petition has been placed in this city it has found many signers. A pile of petitions containing the names of 70 business men of New York was sent to Assemblyman Walter Howe at Albany. Other petitions are accumulating in the hands of the secretary. One was sent in that was signed by 307 members of the produce exchange. The faculties of Columbia college and the university of the city of New York are prominent among other petitioners. Notable among the names of New York people on the various petitions or subscribed to letters in favor of the project are the publishers and editors of the Century, Napoleon Sarony, the president and twenty-six other members of the Kit Kat club; Sinclair Toussie the president and sixty-four other editors and employees of the American News company; Collector W. H. Robertson and 128 other business men, Chief Judge G. F. Daily, Judge Van Rensselaer, Judge Lawrence, Judge J. P. Daily, Judge Allen, Judge Trux, Surrogate Robinson, Justice Van Brunt, Justice Barrett, Justice Lawrence, Justice Bandman, Justice Boies, clerk of the superior court; Nathaniel Jarvis, clerk of the common pleas, and nearly all the other clerks and officers of the higher courts; John Bigelow, Dr. John B. Bigelow and the members of their families; Cyrus W. Field, upon a petition bearing to other names; the Rev. J. C. Zerk, the pastor of the Cooper Union; Hector L. Bishop, John Doane, Josiah M. How, Jr., David Dowe, Jr., D. O. Mills, Newcomb Woodford, and ex-Judge W. H. Armon. A petition signed by many ladies prominent in New York society has come with the same sentiment that if petitions from ladies were desired there would be no difficulty in getting many more of the same character. Peter Mary, who formerly had contributed $10,000 toward paying the expenses of the association's work, sent a letter showing his deep interest in the matter.

The officers of the association say that no single instance has come to their knowledge where any person of distinction and character not personally interested in preserving the present monopolies at the falls has hesitated to speak in favor of the state reservation and to lend the influence of his name to the project.

The executive committee of the association is composed of Charles H. Fairchild, chairman; Senator J. Hampden Robb, James T. Nau Rensselaer, Francis H. Weeks, James M. Varian, Charles A. Penobdy, Jr., Buchanan Washburn, James T. Gardiner, Robert W. De Forest, Theodore Roosevelt and Jacob P. Miller. Henry W. Sackes is the secretary of the committee. The Rev. J. B. Harrison, whose address is postoffice box 160, New York, is the corresponding secretary of the association.

ASKED TO RESIGN.

Governor Marauduke of Missouri Requested to Step Down and Out. ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 21.—A petition has been circulated and has already been signed by 20 persons requesting Gov. Marauduke to "resign the high office to which the nation signed, and demands and exonerates himself to step down and out, a worthy man to put in the place, and the laws of the state properly administered."

This has been sent to the capital. It is said by the governor's friends that the whole thing is a work of his personal enemies, who wanted the area of democracy as a protest to vote their protest.

Happy Thought of the Cincinnati and Eastern.

WINCHESTER, O., March 21.—The Cincinnati and Eastern railroad company is sending circulars for a meeting to be held in Cincinnati, O., March 21st. It is supposed to be for the purpose of having the creditors through the country pay their fare over the road to Cincinnati and return, so as to raise funds to pay the employees of the road.
